

Debenture Investment Officer

Job Description / Responsibilities:

- Analyze investment in Corporate debentures - Search, gather and verify relevant information and conduct quantitative and qualitative analysis
- Follow news, market conditions in Thailand and other markets, Investment company, credit rating and etc.
- Manage and control investment to be complied with internal/ external rules and regulations
- Assist in developing Investment plan and strategy of the department
- Generate related reports to internal/external related parties

Qualifications :

- Bachelor's or Master's degree in Engineering, Finance, Economics or other related fields
- Good command of written and spoken Thai-English
- Ability to learn company investment system
- Good command of written and spoken English
- Excellent communication and negotiating skill
- Data statistic skill