

Functional Lead

Job Description / Responsibilities:

- Understand requirement & current system capabilities.
- Provide functional expertise to internal stakeholders.
- Participate in new core bank selection process by review functional specifications, functions and features, participate in product demonstration and Proof of Concept and evaluate product, identify gaps.
- During implementation, interpret business requirements to functional specifications.
- Identify use cases, application flow, System/Data Flow, screens, reports and data files.
- Support planning team to estimates design and implementation efforts.
- Perform functional testing, when required.

Qualifications:

- Overall Years of working experience: At least 6 years as a Functional lead or Business analyst and system analyst.
- Year of Direct experience in this field: At least 4 years with core banking related application
- Knowledge of Core Banking functions and features.
- Strong analytical and have ability to learn complex processes quickly.
- Excellent interpersonal and communication skills
- Able to effectively collaborate with multiple stakeholders such as business users, implementation vendor, developers, and testers.
- Have problem solving skill and good attitude.
- Project management and SDLC Process.
- Multi-Task Handling.
- Motivating & Leading.
- Issue solving.
- Strong systematical, analytical, creative, problem-solving and critical thinking.
- Good written and spoken English.